Partner Presentations

Klett - mCourser - modern assistant for teachers - Václav Hoďák

Coronavirus is affecting the lives of people all around the world including teachers and students. Teachers and students are under pressure to manage distance learning and to obtain necessary knowledge in a short period of time. mCourser is a modern, intuitive, interactive educational platform. mCourser enables teachers to create assignments, to communicate with students, to share various bonus materials and get detailed statistics about their student's progress.

Macmillan - Jakub Bąk

A short, 10 minute look at what Macmillan Education has prepared for all of us that are yet again faced with the task of teaching our classes remotely. A quick walkthrough of Macmillan's digital resources that are now an integral part of our courses as well as an overview of all additional practical materials prepared for distance learning. Presenting examples of how-to videos, distance learning guides, blogs, webinars, e-lessons and more...

Edu Bears - Advice, assistance, advantage, ... What else does your school need now? - Adam Jańczak

Managing a successful language school is not easy these days. Listen and learn about what actions Edu Bears is taking in order to support our Partner Language Schools in maintaining their business momentum and how our team accompanies their daily efforts and activities. Get access to the elements of our know how, use them and make sure your school will get through safe and sound.

Express Publishing - Daniel Morris

Daniel Morris will present an overview of Express Digibooks, our innovative gamified LMS platform, Ms. Rosenberg's Communicative Business English Activities, and our brand new GE series for all levels."
