Making lessons memorable

There are a variety of ways in which you can make your lessons memorable in order to help your learners take valuable information with them when they leave your classroom. In this plenary we will look at a number of ideas and practical examples which you can use to liven up your lessons, make them fun, relevant, engaging, and creative so that both you and your learners feel you have gotten the most out of the face-to-face time you can spend together.

Marjorie Rosenberg has been teaching general and business English in Graz, Austria since 1981. She is an active teacher trainer, conference speaker and ELT writer. She has written business English materials for Cambridge University Press, National Geographic/Cengage and Pearson and is the author of 'Communicative Business English Activities' for Express Publishing. Marjorie is a former coordinator of IATEFL BESIG and a Past President of IATEFL.
